Panelists:

-Sébastien Beffa (Films Distribution, France)

Sébastien BEFFA (together with Nicolas Brigaud Robert, François Yon, and Valery Guibal) is one of the four founding partners of the holding group FILM HOUSE, the mother company of FILMS DISTRIBUTION and FILMS BOUTIQUE.

Paris based FILMS DISTRIBUTION founded in 1997 and its Berlin sister company FILMS BOUTIQUE founded in 2008 are international sales company handling feature films which have first class festival exposure potential. FILMS DISTRIBUTION picks up 15 to 20 films every year on, and an extra 5 to 10 are signed on by FILMS BOUTIQUE yearly. FILMS DISTRIBUTION also handles a library of 300 classic movies.

FILMS DISTRIBUTION is also an active actor on the French TV Market where it has gathered a library of more than 1000 titles and acts as a sales agent on behalf of independent producers and distributors for the French territory. It has recently developed an activity of pre-financing and coproduction arrangement as well as international sales of high profile TV documentaries.

FILM HOUSE partners and investors have also created two talent agencies : FILM TALENT exclusively dedicated to directors and script writers and AURA representing actors.

Among the FILM HOUSE partners, Sébastien Beffa is especially focused on feature film acquisitions for both FILMS DISTRIBUTION and FILMS BOUTIQUE. He also handles all-rights sales for FD new films on french-speaking territories and UK, and the sales of library domestic TV rights. He is President of FILMS DISTRIBUTION and Delegate Director of FILM HOUSE.

He has a diversified experience in international and domestic acquisitions and sales, coproductions and feature film financing. Graduated from EDHEC Business School and with a background in banking and finance, Sébastien Beffa moved into the film industry in 1991 as the financial controller for the pay cable TV CineCinema and the Fechner film library. He later joined French theatrical distributor and production company Bac / Paradis jointly run by Eric Heumann and Jean Labadie before moving on to become the CEO of the Sofica Gimages (tax-shelter funds dedicated to emerging directors and producers). Between 2003 and 2005, he served as Deputy Director of Acquisitions and Coproductions for France and Europe at Studio Canal (part of the Canal Plus Group) before his current role at Films Distribution.

Director: Jørgen Lerdam

Nationality: Denmark

Production company: Nordisk Film, A. Film A/S

International Sales: TrustNordisk

Synopsis:

The Olsen Gang have now been entrusted to perform a task for the Prime Minister's department. They are to steal Hans Christian Andersen's original quill from the Danish Export Museum. But the Prime Minister's spin doctor, an old enemy of the gang, is about to play a trick; the pen is actually part of a shady deal with China. At stake is nothing less than the country's national sentiment, Egon's honour and 30 million kroner. But Egon has a plan! Meanwhile, government is turned on its head and the Queen's guards are suddenly dancing cancan.

The Olsen Gang, the legendary trio of lovable small-time crooks with big money dreams, have lent their name to more than a dozen films since 1968. For the first time, the three friends appear in an animated version.
